SUPERINTENDENT.

THE THRIVING GARDEN CITY.

Prospects for a Building Boom—
The Court's Doings.

The question is, how long will this fine weather continue?

There is quite a demand for houses to rent at the present time.

Our city fathers have passed the ordinance establishing fire limits.

We have beautiful spring weather. The streets and sidewalks are in a fine condition.

The Utah Electric Light Company effected an organization on Monday and elected a board of directors.

A number of people have commenced trimming their fruit trees, and some have commenced work in their gardens.

Although trade has seemed a little dull for a few weeks most of our merchants have improved the time taking an inventory of their stock on hand. The result of this stock-taking must have been very satisfactory if we may judge of the merchants by their smiling countenances.

The Utah stake conference will begin in the new stake tabernacle on Sunday at 10 a. m. The tabernacle is being fitted up in good style for the occasion, as it is expected a large number of people will be in attendance, on account of the general expectation that President Woodruff and Apostle George Q. Cannon will address the congregations.

The Theatrical Club have recently been rehearsing Nobody's Child, and propose to produce the piece for the entertainment of conference visitors on Saturday and Sunday nights, beginning with a matinee Saturday afternoon. The club is made up of some of our most intelligent young men and young ladies, among whom are Erik Smoot, W. Roberts, George Buesberry, C. A. Glasser, Miss Ida Smoot, Miss Mamie Bullock and others. These young people will no doubt be well patronized by the public at the theatre on these occasions.

The prospects for a building boom in Provo were never better than at the present time. The new hotel to be built for John Grier just north of the East Co. op. store will add materially to the appearance and lead to other improvements in that vicinity on Main Street. The additions to the Cosmopolitan Hotel on Center Street will about double the size of that handsome three-story building, and more than double the accommodations for guests. The owners, Messrs. John & Liddiard, have purchased the lots east of the hotel now occupied by the Company book store and D. P. Felt & Co.'s news stand, and to make room for the hotel these board shanties will be removed to where the woodmen twined. No more lumber fire-traps will be allowed within the fire limits.

BEFORE JUDGE JUDD.

On Wednesday Martin Petersen, Erick Erickson, J. P. Jensen, Charles G. Boloin, Niels Sorenson, John S. Peterson, Christian J. Mortensen, J. C. Nielsen, Jones Watterson, Jens Jensen and Hans Andersen were all admitted to become citizens of the United States.

People vs. Winfield and Manning; rape; the jury after being out forty-five minutes returned a verdict of guilty as charged. Court sentenced the prisoners to-day, giving them twenty-four years in the penitentiary.

Next came Mark Downs, Peter O. Rasmussen, Peter Larsen, Hans O. Aagaard, Jacob Jacobsen, John Bergstrom, Jens C. Christensen, S. P. Christensen, Jorgen Madsen, George Christensen and John Christensen, who were admitted to citizenship.

People vs. Charles Hyde; grand larceny; after hearing the evidence for the prosecution the court instructed the jury to find a verdict of not guilty.

Peter G. Jensen applied for citizenship and was admitted.

People vs. Thomas Cooper; libel; the defendant was arraigned and plead not guilty.

Thursday, 23—People vs. Pardon Dodds; murder; the defendant arraigned and pleaded not guilty; bonds were fixed at $20,000.

People vs. Charles Baker; grand larceny; M. M. Kellogg appointed counsel; to plead March 4.

United States vs. Henry Mower; adultery; defendant pleaded not guilty.

People vs. William H. Manhart; dismissed on motion of the prosecuting attorney.

An order was entered that all parties under bonds shall appear before this court on March 4.

John Strange and Peter Olsen were admitted to citizenship.

The grand jury came into court and presented indictments in thirty United States cases and one Territorial case.

MANTI MATTERS.

FARMERS are anticipating a wet spring this season, but also plenty of water.

On Friday night a dance was held in Crutcher's House for the benefit of the ward.

A slight fall of snow here between Sunday night and Monday morning, which, however, has not lain, but in its place slush and mud.

In spite of muddy roads the mail service between Manti and Moroni has been well conducted. Good horse-flesh has helped, for one thing, to produce this desirable result.

PRESIDENT D. W. WELLS and E. T. PARRY were speakers at the Tabernacle on Sunday. The latter gave his farewell sermon. Many of Pres. Wells' friends are pained to see his efforts to make himself heard by his congregation.

To-night the Snow-Hi company was to have played; but the city authorities would not license, so they have had to take up their line of march north. The company have not lost financially by their non-appearance. MANTI, Feb. 26 1889.

The quarantine physician has reported diphtheria as having broken out, and, in consequence the schools have been closed. None of the cases reported have terminated fatally, and the disease, the physician says, is of a mild type. The children are at home, but the cattle roam the streets from noon till muddy eve.

On Saturday evening a preliminary meeting was held to organize a club under the auspices of the People's Party. The following were elected a committee to prepare a constitution and by-laws for the guidance for the club: Wm. T. Reid, Geo. Scott, John Reid, Wm. K. Reid and A. Tennyson. The meeting was a pleasant one.
